

I am not in favor of further de-regulation. I believe we have already gone too far in allowing large corporations to take over our public airwaves for their monetary gain, and our social loss. Competition within a market is crucial. Unbiased information is essential to America's ability to remain a democracy.